

literacy partners

presents

AN INSTITUTE IN THE TEACHING OF READING

BEGINNING PARTICIPANTS

Building the Foundations for A Strong Reading Workshop

PARTICIPANTS WILL:

- Develop teaching points and mini lessons aligned to the Common Core State Standards in reading
- Use routines and structures that foster joy and engagement in your reading workshop
- Understand and integrate other components of balanced literacy that will support independent reading time into the school day
- Analyze student data to develop individual plans for your readers
- Integrate the Teachers College Reading and Writing Project units of study into your daily practice

ADVANCED/RETURNING PARTICIPANTS

Creating Critical Thinkers in our Classrooms -

Helping Students Build Thoughtful Conversations during Partner and Book Club Time

PARTICIPANTS WILL:

- Improve whole class conversations off of interactive read alouds
- Create teaching points and mini lessons to support partner work and book clubs during independent reading time
- Organize how and when to schedule and incorporate partner work and book club time
- Teach conversational moves to help students build stronger talk with their peers
- Develop charts and tools to help partners and book clubs become more independent
- Integrate resources and tools from the Teachers College Reading and Writing Project units to support partner and book club work

JUNE 11-14th, 2018

8:30 - 1:30 pm

STANFORD AVENUE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

2833 Illinois Ave., South Gate, CA 90280

$625 per participant

Early bird registration by March 1st, 2018 | $599 per participant

www.literacypartners.com

Please see our website events page to register.

If you have any questions, please contact us at: info@literacypartners.com