

literacy  partners

presents

AN INSTITUTE IN THE TEACHING OF WRITING

BEGINNING PARTICIPANTS

Building the Foundations for A Strong Writing Workshop

PARTICIPANTS WILL:

- Develop teaching points and mini lessons aligned to the Common Core State Standards in writing
- Learn ways to use routines and structures that foster joy and engagement in your writing workshop
- Understand and integrate other components of balanced literacy that will support independent writing time into the school day
- Analyze student work to develop individual plans for your writers
- Integrate the Teachers College Reading and Writing Project units of study into your daily practice

ADVANCED/RETURNING PARTICIPANTS

Inspire Kids to Write Like Real Authors – Lifting the Level of Your Teaching Through Mentor Texts

PARTICIPANTS WILL:

- Learn how to mine mentor texts for craft techniques students can use in their own writing
- Create mini lessons to teach exciting craft techniques
- Use mentor texts during conferences and small groups to support individual writers
- Develop charts and tools to support the use of mentor texts
- Integrate resources and tools from the Teachers College Reading and Writing Project units to support the use of mentor texts

JULY 24-27TH, 2018

8:30 - 1:30 pm

DANIEL PHELAN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

7150 South Cully Ave., Whittier, CA 90606

$625 per participant

Early bird registration by April 1st, 2018 | $599 per participant

www.literacypartners.com

Please see our website events page to register.

If you have any questions, please contact us at: info@literacypartners.com